You see brethren we have only $34.75 Quota Money at the end of the first quarter, the remainder is of the Self-denial Band fund, and by the way, for the benefit of those who have not the advantage of paying into the pastors hands, allow me to say, I have the list in my possession (a copy) and will credit those who pay. I further suggest that the respective pastors get a list of their members as a foundation for a larger list, and see what can be done in this direction. I will further say, that pay for the November month work of the Evangelists exhausts our funds and we will have to run of credit as usual, or recall from the field one of the Evangelists. We do not like to be obliged to do the former and doubt the propriety of the latter. Come to the rescue, brethren. R. Z. REPLOGLE, Sec.

FROM PITTSBURG, PA.

The church here is moving along slowly. Since the last report in EVANGELIST, four have been baptized and two applications for baptism. One of the sisters baptized and the two yet to be baptized are blind naturally, but spiritually they are not. They are well educated, and are very much devoted to Bible study. This is week of prayer by the Christian Endeavor, and our society is alive and at work. God bless the young people's society here and everywhere.

H. WISE.

FROM MIDDLEBRANCH, O.

The Middlebranch Brethren Sunday-school held their annual election of officers, Sunday, Dec. 29, 1895, which resulted as follows:

Superintendent—W. H. Wise.
Assistant—Ella Roush.
Secretary—Oscar Smith.
Treasurer—Henry Gibson.
Organist—Lettie Cocklin.
Chorister—Emmit Gibson.

The members of the Sunday-school also presented their superintendent, W. H. Wise, with a very fine Teacher's Bible. Mr. Wise in response made a very appropriate speech, thanking the school for their kindness and good will. The future of this school is full of promises.

A TRUE life is at once interpreter and proof of the gospel.—Whittier.

FROM BROOKLYN, IA.

Our revival at Brooklyn closed Dec. 22, with the evening service. It lasted four weeks. During these meetings nineteen made the good confession, thirteen of whom were received by baptism, three were reclaimed, making our actual addition to the church in number, sixteen to date. Two more remain to be baptized. The other one who came forward united with the M. E. church where his wife holds her membership. The church was much revived. The meeting closed with a full house and good interest.

We had expected Sister Flora, of Dallas Center, Iowa, to assist us, but on account of her other engagements she could not be with us. And it remained for the pastor to conduct the services alone. And yet not alone, for God was with us, and the members nobly assisted in the good work. Brethren, pray for the Lord's cause at Brooklyn.

This evening I commence a revival ten miles south of town to continue for an indefinite time. This is where brother H. H. Connel lives. There are twelve members living at this place. I preach here regularly every two weeks at 3 P. M., preaching three times every Sunday, besides revival and other additional work, keeps me busy. Brethren, pray for me.

STAR NEWS.

As we who are trying to follow our Master like to hear from the church at other places, will send report of our meeting which Brother Beer held one week at this place. The weather became very inelement, and the series closed, yet we had a good meeting. Four were baptized. And we also held a communion meeting by which we were all very much benefited. The church is very much encouraged.

FROM MILFORD, IND.

Our series of meetings are over. We have nine more to report. Three of the nine were baptized at the same time the others previously reported, were. Five of the other six by baptism and one by relation. Our cause is still advancing along every line. Our Junior C. E. Society is surprising the community. Our church is nearly half full of children on Sunday afternoons.

While at the church on Christmas eve, we were remembered with a splendid donation by the brethren and other friends. When we came home our table was piled high with good things, but Santa Claus had fled. Thanks, thanks, brethren.
